BLACK-DRAUGHT STOCK & POULTRY MEDICINE.
 This great stock medicine is a money saver for stock raisers. It is a medicine, not a cheap food or condition powder. Though put up in a form more than Theodor's Black-Draught, removed for the cure of the digestion troubles of persons, it has the same qualities of invigorating digestion, stirring up the torpid liver and loosening the constipated bowels for all stock and poultry. It is carefully prepared and its action is so healthful that stock grow and thrive with an occasional dose in their food. It cures hog cholera and makes hogs grow fat. It cures chicken cholera and roup and makes hens lay. It cures constipation, distemper and colds in horses, murrain in cattle, and makes a draught animal do more work for the food consumed. It gives animals and fowls of all kinds new life. Every farmer and raiser should certainly give it a trial.
 It costs 25c. a can and saves ten times its price in profit.
 PITTSBURG, KAS., March 25, 1904.
 I have been using your Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine on my stock for some time. I have used all kinds of stock food but I have found that yours is the best for my purpose.

WATCH EVOLUTION.

The Progress From the Time of the First Portable Timepiece.

Peter Henlein of Nuremberg, in Germany, about 1500, is now generally credited with the invention of the portable watch. The earliest watches were naturally rather crude. This is shown by the few specimens still in existence. They were circular in shape, not oval or egg shaped, and entirely made of iron. In place of the round balance was a straight one, called foliot. Like almost all watches up to the year 1790, they were provided with the verge escapement. The hairspring is absent. In order to obtain a tolerably uniform rate an upright hog's bristle was used, against which the foliot strikes. The uneven traction of the spring they endeavored to prevent by means of a brake. Great accuracy was not aimed at, which is shown by the fact that the oldest watches with very few exceptions up to about the year 1700 indicated only the hours, the minute hand being entirely absent.

While the first watches were rather crude, there appeared only twenty or thirty years after their invention works that are termed almost technically perfect. The iron plates and wheels had given place to finely gilt brass ones. The pinions were of steel and polished, the cocks artistically engraved and the pillars neatly turned. Greater precision was obtained when, about the year 1600, the hairspring was invented by Dr. Hooke and also, but entirely independent of the latter, by Huyghens. This opened the way for the introduction of the minute hand, which is found quite generally around the year 1700. Some of the oldest watches were already furnished with a striking mechanism. About the year 1600 watches with alarms were made, and in 1691 Barlowe, an Englishman, introduced the repeating watch.

Toward the year 1800 there was made for the first time the second hand in watches. The cylinder escapement is known to be quite old, for it was originated as far back as 1710, but was not generally adopted until about 1840. The lever escapement, the one used in the majority of American watches of the present time, was invented about 1765 by Thomas Mudge.

First Aid to the Injured.
 On a rock strewn beach on the Cornish coast the fury of a violent storm was just abating. A vessel had gone to pieces on the rocks, and after a display of much heroism on the part of the villagers all the crew and passengers had been saved with the exception of one man. He had been washed ashore apparently drowned, and the new curate knelt at his side on the beach endeavoring to restore his circulation.
 "My friends," he said, turning to the villagers, "how do you usually proceed in these cases?"
 As one man the simple folk replied:
 "Search his pockets!"—Harper's Weekly.

A Delicate Hint.
 The Rev. John Kerr of Glasgow in his book of reminiscences entitled "Memories Grave and Gay" tells the following story about the beadle of Kilwinning church:
 The beadle was in the habit of showing visitors over the remains of the abbey in the parish. On one occasion he had done so for a lady, who on leaving him in the churchyard offered him only barren thanks.
 As she went through the gate the wily Robbie remarked:
 "Weel, my leddy, when ye gang hame if ye fin' out that ye have lost your purse ye maun recollect that ye havena had it out here!"

Of More Importance.
 The shade of our great George Washington was again on earth. Naturally he was interviewed by the leading newspaper men.
 "And if you were on earth now would you be cutting down cherry trees?" asked one.
 "No," responded the great man. "If I were on earth in flesh I would be cutting down the salaries of politicians and appropriation bills."—St. Louis Republic.

At Short Range.
 "It must be awful," said the typewriter boarder with the pompadour, to be deceived by a false marriage.
 "Well, I don't suppose it's any worse than being deceived by a real one," rejoined the landlady.
 And her husband continued to give a correct imitation of a man trying to read a newspaper.—Chicago News.

Still Boasting.
 "She was a very extravagant girl. She used to boast of having the most expensive gowns in New York."
 "Yes?" And since she married the count?
 "Why, now she boasts of having the most expensive husband."—New York Press.

THE AVERAGE JURY.

As a Rule Its Verdict Is About Right In Doing Justice.

The average jury will sit for an hour or so listening attentively to the evidence, "sizing up" the witnesses, and particularly the defendant, bringing to bear their knowledge of the conditions prevailing among the class and in the part of the city in which the crime was committed, and will then file out to the jury room, through the closed doors of which can be heard loud and often heated and profane wranglings, which will suddenly cease, and then they will come filing back with a self satisfied air and deliver a verdict which in 95 per cent of cases is just about right when looked at from the broad point of view of doing substantial justice. Keeping in mind that the defendant's guilt must be proved beyond a reasonable doubt, it is but seldom that a fair minded prosecuting officer can quarrel with the verdicts of acquittal rendered in the county of New York. Frequently juries will disagree, owing to the presence of "the eleven obstinate men." But when a verdict is rendered it is safe to say that it is a vindication of the wisdom of the fathers in leaving the question of the guilt or innocence of a citizen to the judgment of twelve of his fellow citizens. Before that body the innocent man may gladly come, assured that his fellow citizens composing it desire to acquit rather than convict and that their combined intelligence and knowledge of men will appreciate and sympathize with his embarrassment or slowness of wit, while the guilty man dreads the scrutiny of those twelve stolid common sense faces, for whose composite he knows he is no match, and with reluctance does he break the silence which was formerly imposed upon him by the law.—C. C. Nott, Jr., in Atlantic.

The Strange Kiwi.

In New Zealand is found the kiwi, a strange bird of the ostrich family. Ostriches have two toes, but the extinct moas had three toes, so also have the existing emus, cassowaries and rheas, or South American ostrich.

The kiwi, however, differs from the other struthious birds in having four toes. Further, the kiwi cannot be said to be quite ostrich-like, for in size it is not larger than the ordinary barnyard fowl. It has a small head, with a large and muscular neck and a long, slender bill, with the distinguishing feature that the nostrils are placed close to its tip. The legs are short, but the muscles on the thighs are well developed, and the feet are strong and powerful and provided with sharp claws.
 The kiwi is a bird devoid of any external trace of wings, and there is no trace of tail visible, while it is covered with long, narrow, hairlike feathers, and on the fore part of the head and sides of the face are straggling hairlike feelers.—Chicago Chronicle.

A Blind Spot In the Eye.

It is remarkable that although the optic nerve is of all parts of the eye the most sensitive to light, yet should an object fall on it as we look around us—and some object must always be thrown on it—it is invisible to us, and in our field of vision there is in reality a gap, though in ordinary sight the surrounding edges of this gap draw up together and so fill it. But by closing one eye by practice one may actually force the object which is reflected on to the optic nerve to disappear completely from the field of vision. Bernstein tells us that even the sun itself can be made to disappear if it falls exactly on the blind spot where the optic nerve enters the eye. This may account for the fact that some people can close one eye and stare the summer sun without wincing.

Art and Geography.

Among the visitors at an art exhibition were two old ladies from the country. They were examining with great interest a bas-relief of a young Greek shepherd, beneath which were inscribed the words, "Executed in terra cotta."

"I wonder where Terra Cotta is?" ventured the elder of the two, turning to her companion.
 "Well, now, I ought to know," hesitated the other, "but I can't seem to place it just now."
 "Ah, well," rejoined the first speaker as they passed on, "it must be a dreadful place if they execute harmless young boys like that there."

Not a Masterpiece.

A Scotch laboring man who had married a rich widow exceptional for her plainness was accosted by his employer. "Well, Thomas," he said, "I hear you are married. What sort of a wife have you got?"
 "Well, sir," was the response, "she's the Lord's handiwork, but I canna say she's his masterpiece."

CREDIT CUSTOMERS.

Where They Have an Advantage Over Those Who Pay Cash.

"I should think they'd show more consideration to a good cash customer," exclaimed the shopper, who had just had a wordy encounter over an exchange slip with the floorwalker. "If they would take the trouble to look the matter up they'd find my name regularly on the delivery books."

"That's just the trouble—it's only on the delivery books and not among their charge customers."
 "But I should think the firm would want a big cash trade?"
 "It does, but firm and employees look at it differently. When a woman says, 'Charge, please,' the clerk sits up and takes notice. The woman who has an account is the woman who can most easily complain of discourtesy and inattention on the part of a clerk. The value of her trade is known to the firm. She prefaces her complaint with the words, 'As you know, I've had an account here ever since the store was opened.' The cash customer represents a single sale. She cannot prove how valuable her trade is to the house, and the clerk knows it. I've watched the rule work again and again. It almost discourages one in the self imposed task of paying cash."

"But, on the other hand," objected the tired shopper, "if a woman pays cash she buys more carefully, more prudently."
 "That is just the point," smiled her wise companion. "It is the woman who buys imprudently, sometimes foolishly, who commands the respect and incidentally the attention of clerks."—New York Press.

Foreboded Boys.

It is perhaps not true that in St. Louis when the noon whistle blew a carpenter nailing shingles on a roof left his hammer suspended in the air at the upper end of a stroke and went to lunch, but Search Light vouchers for the following, which is along the same line:
 While the American Library association was in session a number of members went to inspect a cotton mill. They were in the card room when the whistle blew for noon and saw the card room boys put up their work as if by magic and disappear.
 "Do all the boys drop their tools the instant the whistle blows?" asked one of the visitors.
 "No, not all," replied the foreman. "The more orderly have their tools all put away before that time."

A Mixture of Colors.
 "Funny thing happened in my town last week," said the man from up the creek.
 "What was that?" asked the man from down the way.
 "Black, a white man, and White, a black man, thought a fellow named Brown was pretty green and tried to sell him a gold brick. But Brown was well read, and he bluffed them both. In fact, he got all the money they had."
 "And now?"
 "And now Black and White are blue."

Will It Cure Me?
 That's the personal question a woman asks herself when she reads of the cures of womanly diseases by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.
 Why shouldn't it cure her?
 Is it a complicated case? Thousands of such cases have been cured by "Favorite Prescription." Is it a condition which local doctors have declared incurable? Among the hundreds of thousands of sick women cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription there have been worked by "Favorite Prescription" in the cure of irregularity, wandering drains, inflammation, ulceration and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures.
 "I commenced taking your medicine, 'Favorite Prescription,' nearly a year ago for chronic inflammation of womb and can truly say it is the only thing that ever did me any good," writes Mrs. L. C. Wagner, of 125 Edwin Street, Toronto, Ontario, Canada. "I could not walk any distance before using it. After taking six bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' I find I can walk with ease and comfort. I have been greatly benefited in general health. Would advise all suffering women to use Dr. Pierce's medicine."

These are the Original Little Women's Liver Pills. First put up over 40 years ago by old Dr. R. V. Pierce. They've been much imitated but never equalled. Smallest, costliest and most concentrated vegetable extract, without disturbance or trouble, constipation, indigestion, bilious attacks, sick and nervous stomach, and all ailments of liver, bowels and stomach are prevented, relieved and cured. Pernicious cures of liver, stomach and natural action, these little Pills gently lead the system into natural ways again. Their influence lasts.

That Tired Feeling.
 If you are languid, depressed, incapable for work, it indicates that your liver is out of order. Herbine will assist nature to throw off headaches, rheumatism and ailments akin to nervousness and restore the energies and vitality of sound and perfect health. J. J. Hubbard, Temple, Texas, writes: "I have used Herbine for the past two years. It has done me more good than all the doctors. It is the best medicine ever made for chills and fever." 50c. Sold by L. S. Simmons.

Those Railroad Bonds.

A RELIC of the by-gone days of thirty-five or forty years ago, when the people of many counties of this state voted heavy subsidies to the railroads for the purpose of having them build their way, will confront the Board of Supervisors of Sonoma County next April. The taxpayers of the county will then be called upon to pay the last of the $300,000 bonds voted the San Francisco and North Pacific Railway Company as a subsidy to insure the construction and operation of the road in Sonoma County. Of these bonds $107,000 and $6,000 interest must be paid next April by direct taxation, else the bonds go by default.

As the obligation must be met by the Supervisors it would be well to warn the taxpayers in advance that this debt is no fault of the present Supervisors. They will simply be called upon to pay a debt contracted years ago by a Board of Supervisors that should have frowned down this subsidy business and to which, in those days of early railroad building in California much scandal was attached. However, that may be, the present Board of Supervisors are up against the real thing when they make the next tax levy, and this subsidy obligation must be met, and he will be a blind partizan indeed who will dare make political capital out of it when next election day comes around.

"Mother, I want a little cow."
Said the little boy in blue,
And over to the dairy ranch
He ran, yes, fairly flew.
Soon came he back with tears of woe
And sad with trembling lips,
Said, "Mother dear you told me wrong,
They say there's no cow slips."
"Why son, you know they're beautiful flowers,
I said they'd grow quite well."
"Why ma, I thought you meant the cows,
We'd grow by slips and sell.
So cow slips are just only flowers.
I'm disappointed quite,
But some day Luther Burbank
May make the whole thing right."

Beneficiaries in Will.

Otto R. Rufus and his sister, Miss Minnie Rufus, nephew and niece of the late Mina Leiding, who died last week in Oakland, are beneficiaries under her will. Mrs. Leiding also deeded to them the Union Hotel property in this place and the beautiful home in Oakland. The will will be filed for probate in the Superior Court of Alameda county. Mr. Rufus is one of the executors of the estate, which is a valuable one.

Dancing Party

A dancing party was given by Ed Morris last Saturday night at the Morris place for the summer guests and a large number of local young people were also invited. A bus load of merry-makers left here about 8:30, arriving at the farm at about 9:00. Dancing was immediately inaugurated and a very enjoyable evening followed. At eleven o'clock water-ice and cakes were served and dancing then continued until midnight.

Landers Stephens, the actor, has been spending the week at Agua Caliente Springs and is enjoying himself immensely.

William, the boot-black whose stand is in front of the Union, was invited to a chicken dinner last Sunday and says a Mulligan stew can't be beat.

Joe King and Al Freyer, the well-known business men of San Francisco, are registered at the Bellevue Hotel and are thinking of locating here.

Joe Schmauch, Chas. Wall, Gus Marcy and Eugene Oppinger will shortly leave for the Portland Fair where Gus and Chas. will open a grand fruit store.

Architect W. H. Wilcox has had his plans of the Union Trust Savings Bank building for Santa Rosa accepted. Mr. Wilcox formerly resided on the Muser place.

Master Seahower was taken to the Children's Hospital this week for treatment. The child has been sick with inflammation of the bowels and is in a critical condition.

John Queroll, an aged man, who was sent to the County Hospital from this place, on Thursday of last week, died in that institution on Saturday. The funeral was held here Sunday.

A pleasant surprise party was given to Miss Sophia Weber Wednesday evening. The early part of the evening was spent in playing games, after which all sat down to a fine supper.

R. B. Fowler, or better known as old boy "Bob" the famous guide of Sonoma Valley, took in the dance at the Villa last Saturday evening and made quite a hit with the summer fairies.

William, the boot black, has sold his stand to James W. Sterling. It is said that quite a few dollars changed hands during the transaction. We all wish Jimmy success in his new undertaking.

There off! Who? Why, Constable Mouyer and Tom Mullen, the veteran detective. They have purchased from Ralph Ent a mule (and her name is "Maud.") It is said they got a hunch that a murderer was in the vicinity of El Verano and with the aid of "Maud" they hope to bring the criminal to justice.

Sonoma was visited last Tuesday by a few of the guests from the Bellevue Hotel. They spent some time visiting the Court House, the old Mission and the Post Office. They also visited their old friend Geo. Gies. The party was composed of the following, all from San Francisco: Mrs. Figel and three charming daughters, the Misses Juliet, Hortense and Dorothy Figel, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hulse, the bride and groom, the Misses Israel, Sam Israel, Hattie Klein, the famous acrobat, Joe King of the International Hotel, who felt homesick on account of the absence of his wife and three children, Ralph Mackay and Al Freyer, the prize-fighter.

There is no better place to stop in San Francisco than at the Langham Hotel, corner of Ellis and Mason streets. It is six stories high, fire-proof, convenient to all attractions, close to all car lines, and offers all the advantages of superior hotel service at small cost. The rooms are large, clean and well ventilated and the management courteous, polite and hospitable. Write for booklet and rates.

Miss Edna McElroy has been employed at L. S. Simmons' to take charge of the telephone office during the summer months. The increased telephone business makes it impossible for Mr. Simmons to handle it all alone.

What are Humors?
They are vitiated or morbid fluids coursing the veins and affecting the tissues. They are commonly due to defective digestion but are sometimes inherited.

How do they manifest themselves?
In many forms of cutaneous eruption, salt rheum or eczema, pimples and boils, and in weakness, languor, general debility.

How are they expelled?
By Hood's Sarsaparilla which also builds up the system that has suffered from them.

It is the best medicine for all humors.

MRS. L. MODINI PASSES AWAY

Expired Sunday Morning
After a Protracted Illness

Mrs. Modini, wife of L. Modini, died at her home here last Sunday morning after an illness of several months.

The deceased was born in Italy on July 15, 1851, and was therefore nearly 55 years of age. She came to Sonoma about twenty-six years ago direct from the old country. Immediately after her arrival she became the bride of Lorenzo Modini, the proprietor of the Garibaldi House. During all these years she made her home in the hotel and was an industrious and pleasant landlady.

Mrs. Modini, besides leaving a beloved husband, left a son and daughter to mourn her leave-taking, the former being Jas. Modini and the latter Mrs. Angelo Beretta. She was a good wife and a kind and affectionate mother and the loss will create a void in the little family that can never be filled.

Mrs. Modini's funeral took place Tuesday from her late residence. The funeral services were held in St. Francis' Church by Rev. Father Leahy and the interment was in Mountain Cemetery.

Big Meeting of Woman's Club

The Sonoma Valley Woman's Club had a special meeting on Thursday afternoon of last week which was largely attended. The meeting was called for the purpose of discussing the plumbing for the fountain and for other necessary matters. It was decided to have new specifications for the plumbing and also new bids for the work. The club also instructed the committee having this matter in charge to have proper drainage for the horse trough, whereby it can be cleaned.

Votes of thanks were given the Napa and Vallejo Clubs for their entertainment, also to Mr. Bernstein for the drinking cups. It was further decided to have a garden party at the Emparan place in July. This garden party will be given to raise funds to complete the fountain which will be ready by July 4th.

CHICKS

Incubators, 8000 Capacity.

We will receive orders from now until September 30th for hatching eggs; 100 to 8000. We will sell you chicks or will hatch from your own eggs.

TERMS 3 cents for hatching, you to furnish eggs, or from 63 cts. to 10 cts. per chick, according to breed of hens, and age of chicks.

An experienced incubator man will have charge of the machines and his whole time will be given to that and nothing else, so you will receive strong, healthy chicks, which will have a rapid growth and turn out fine birds.

Where people are strangers to us a deposit of $1.00 on each 100 ordered is required.

Get your order in early as we will not receive orders for more than 8000 this fall.

Orders by mail received both for this fall and next spring.

Address,
J. K. BIGELOW,

Injured While at Work

Oscar Joss, who is employed by Mrs. Felder at Agua Caliente, met with a painful accident Monday while at work hauling hay by rope and tackle to the loft of the barn.

In some manner Joss got his fingers caught in the rope and before he could extricate them the entire top of one of his fingers was wrenched off and another badly lacerated.

Left $100 to the Sonoma Womans' Club

The Sonoma Valley Woman's Club has been left $100 by Mrs. Leiding, who passed away in Oakland last week. Appreciating the good work being done toward the improvement of Sonoma by this organization and having to the last the interest of her old town at heart, this benevolent lady remembered the Club in her will. The document will be filed for probate in Alameda county on July 6th.

GLEN ELLEN By Aurora.

Mr. A. M. Hardman went to San Francisco Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. James O'Rook went to Santa Rosa Thursday.

Mr. A. E. Gaige transacted business in Santa Rosa Wednesday.

Mr. Wells superintendent of the laundry at "The Home" is quite ill.

Miss Pearl Allen will attend the Alumni at Santa Rosa next Monday.

The Woman's Improvement Club met last Saturday with a good attendance.

Martha Gordenker is at Selby visiting with the wives of the officers of the "Lena."

Mr. Wm. Speaker has been promoted to the position of fireman on the passenger train.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Cherkurian were the guests of Mr. and Miss Woods Tuesday.

Miss E. Cupin who has been in San Francisco for the past week returned home Thursday morning.

Chas. Poppe went to San Francisco Sunday to attend the funeral of his cousin, Miss Elizabeth Poppe.

Mrs. Jas. Shaw and Mrs. Kymersley have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hodge at Fearn Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. William Speaker have returned from their wedding trip and will now settle down to every-day life in Glen Ellen.

Geo. Latur, a prominent grape-grower and wine-maker of Rutherford, called on friends at this place last Saturday on his way to Lakeville.

Roadmaster Jas. Cowen has just finished oiling the road between Glen Ellen and Caliente. He has done a good job and it is a great improvement.

Judge Cook's hay pressing gang are rushing things right along. Besides his own hay he has finished pressing Mr. Quernes' and Mr. Shubert's this week.

The Misses McLane, professional nurses of San Francisco are spending the week with their mother in her cozy summer cottage.

Miss Amy Poppe and Miss Annie Quoine, who are attending the Santa Rosa High School, are expected home for the summer vacation Friday evening.

The artistic hand-painted posters for the Dunbar School Exercises are the clever work of Miss Davidson. They attract much attention and are a credit to the young lady.

The Grangers met last Saturday and initiated quite a number of new members, both young and old. It was an all day meeting a fine spread and a general good time for all who were present.

The Ladies' Aid of the Congregational Church are making arrangements for a sociable and farce, "Freezing the Mother-in-law," to be held in Mayflower Hall next week. Anyone wanting a good time had better not miss this.

The people of Kenwood are to be congratulated on having two such popular young persons as Dr. Sprague and wife coming to make that place their home. The Dr. is known as a successful physician and Mrs. Sprague as a charming society lady.

The explosion in the manor house at the Home came very near killing the fireman and his assistant. One fireman was blown out the front door and the other out the back. Both the men are laid up for repairs. It was at first thought that one of the men was seriously injured, but we are glad to say such is not the case and they are doing as well as can be expected.

THE BONDS ARE CARRIED

The Vote for the Bonds for the New Courthouse Was Carried by an Overwhelming Majority.

Last Thursday the citizens of Sonoma voted to see whether or no they were to have the new Courthouse which has so long been needed. The polls were opened at 6:00 A. M. and quite a heavy vote was cast, showing that there was much enthusiasm concerning the result.

The polls were closed at 5:00 P. M., when the counting was begun. Before half the votes were counted it could be plainly seen that the majority of the voters were in favor of the bonds. There were 143 votes cast in all, but one of these was invalid, leaving 142 good ballots.

Out of these 142 only 17 were against the bonds. This shows that 125 votes were cast in favor of the bonds.

This is a great victory for Sonoma and many of our citizens are wearing broad smiles these days. Now the old building which has served as a Courthouse for so many years will have to make way for a new and stately stone structure which will be a credit to the town.

The plans for the new structure have already been prepared and ere long work will be commenced.

So much enthusiasm was shown that on Thursday evening several prominent business men hired the Sonoma Brass Band to give a grand concert. Bonfires were built all around the plaza, making a brilliant scene. There was much cheering, fireworks, and saluting etc., going on until a late hour. Sonoma will be a proud town when the new Courthouse is completed. Three cheers for the new Courthouse.

Surprise Party

A jolly surprise party was given to Miss Manie Englund on Friday night of last week. The young hostess answered a summons to the door and was confronted by the merry-makers, who were then invited in and given a hearty welcome. Games were played during the evening and delicious ice cream, cakes and sandwiches, fruit and candies were served. The following young people were present: Misses Manie Englund, Sophie Weber, Janet Wellmann, Louise Weber, Janet Munfrey, Etta Englund, Hazel Thomas and Edna Thomas. Messrs. Harold Stonier, Roy Pauli, Neil Trudgen, Robert Prussia, Dixon MacQuiddy, Howard Gaige, Eugene Hunt, Will Ashe and Jack Knight.

The Ladies' Aid will hold a special meeting next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Appleton.

Mesdames Poppe and Small went to San Francisco Monday to attend the funeral of their cousin, who died there on Saturday.

Said to be Pleased With Contra Costa Site.

The Agricultural Farm Commission is said to have been much pleased with the site offered by Contra Costa county. The Supervisors of that county recently received a letter from Victor Henderson, secretary of the commission, expressing the desire of the members to spend another day in the county "in order to see the lower end, including the Rancho Los Medanos." The water requirement can be amply filled in Contra Costa, several large ranches having excellent water rights.

EL VERANO. By Happy Hooligan.

The pile driving crew of the S. P. Company are at this place repairing the different bridges.

Mr. and Mrs. Lalanne (nee Duhl) of San Francisco are spending the week at the French Cottage.

John Serres received a new racing cart from San Francisco on Tuesday which will be used to train his trotter.

Billy Shoup, who formerly ran a boot-black stand in Sonoma, will start one at El Verano Villa in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Heavry and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Daughney and family of San Francisco are spending the summer here.

"Only Me" has again changed hands. This time Joe Toroni is the purchaser and he will enter his fleet hound at Ingleside in a few weeks.

El Verano is crowded with summer visitors. People are being turned away every day and a still larger rush is expected about the first of the month.

Geo. W. Bergst and Billy Ward of San Francisco were in this place last week on a business trip. They were registered at the Swiss-American Hotel and rumor has it that they will build a large summer resort in this place in the near future.

The "Villa" now has a professional piano player from San Francisco who furnishes music each evening for a social hop. Every one is cordially invited. Chirardelli's Orchestra will play as usual every night and also on Monday, July 3rd.

There was a hurrying and scurrying to get out of sight last Monday when the genial Poll Tax Collector with the yellow dustar was seen approaching this place. Get on to yourself Mont! and have the garment dyed some other color as its a dead give away.

"HAPPY HOOLIGAN."

CONVENT PUPILS ENTERTAINMENT

Union Hall Crowded and Program Shows Talent and Excellent Training

The Convent Entertainment last Saturday night was a big success. Union Hall was crowded and standing room was at a premium.

The pupils who took part in the program displayed much talent and excellent training. The dance by four little tots was splendid and the musical part of the program was exceptionally good.

The drama, "The Witch of Rosenberg," was well played and was much enjoyed. By special request Mr. O'Connor of San Francisco gave an Irish jig and was recalled several times.

The entertainment netted a substantial sum for the school and the good sisters are much appreciative of the patronage accorded it.

Miss Rosella Graham, who was to have taken the part of Gretchen in the drama, "The Witch of Rosenberg," was unfortunately absent on account of the injuries she received in a recent accident. Miss Watt took the part instead.

A Rare Opportunity

Mine host Martel of Buena Vista Castle is to leave us on the 15th of July, 1905, consequently he offers for sale at a great sacrifice all his interest in the beautiful spot where the Castle is situated, comprising: Three Horses, Three New Sets Harness, Bus, Wagon, Jersey Cow, Carpets, Rugs, Linen, Crochery, Etc. Also, the lease of the premises of 31 acres for two years. For further particulars apply on the premises.

My reason for leaving for the south is that I cannot refuse the great opportunity offered me.

IN A HERONY.

It is Not a Pleasure to Either the Eye, Ear or Nose.

A writer describes as follows the Rhode of a colony of herons near a large city in this country: "The herony of which I am writing is situated in a piece of swampy woodland not more than 200 yards from a main traveled road. Let one attempt to enter the confines of this city of birds and he will immediately be made aware of the nature of the place. At first he will be greeted by a few croaks from the outlying members of the colony, the suburbanites, as it were, and then, as he inadvertently steps on a dry twig that breaks with a cracking report, such din will suddenly arise as will cause him to think he has entered bedlam. Birds appear by the hundreds where before not one could be seen. The air is full of the rustle and rush of wings, and each bird vies with his fellows in making the most noise until their combined efforts produce a racket that can be likened to nothing I know of and that can easily be heard from a quarter to half a mile away. The voices of the night herons are anything but musical.

"Everywhere are pieces of half digested and decaying fish and the bodies of young birds that have met an untimely end by falling from the nests, and consequently the odor is not what might truthfully be called savory. Altogether it is hardly the place one would choose for an early morning jaunt unless one had a particular object in doing so, especially as there is but little solid ground, the rest being mud, water and decaying vegetation. And yet, despite all these unpleasant features, it is altogether a delightful place to visit for one who is a lover of birds.

"Occasionally a resounding thump coming from some part of the swamp announces the fall of a young one too eager to obtain its portion of food. These falls when the herons are fairly well grown seem to trouble them not at all, even when the drop is fifty or sixty feet. But they must be able to climb again into the trees or provide for themselves upon the ground if they would live, for the old birds appear to be entirely oblivious to the cries of the fallen."

The Shortest Names.

Many years ago there was a shop kept in the Rue de Louvain, in Brussels, by Therese O, and there is a Mme. O living with her two children at Molenbeck, a suburb of the Belgian capital, according to the Buffalo Commercial. In the Rue de l'Angle, in the same commune, lives a Mr. O (with a circumflex accent), who is no relative of Mme. O. In 1866 among the Belgian recruits was a young man named O, who could not write and signed his name with a cross, yet he could so easily have learned to write his own name! In the department of Somme there is a village called Y, in the Zuyder zee there is a bay called Y and Amsterdam has the river Y. In the Chinese province of Honan there is a city called U, and in France there is a river and in Sweden a town rejoicing in the name of A.

Infantry.

Some have supposed that the name infantry was applied to foot soldiers from the fact of the page boy or under attendant in feudal times being unmounted, while his lord rode off to the battle. A far more likely derivation of the term is seen when we remember that the infant is the official term of the heir apparent in Spain, as the dauphin is in France. Infantry, therefore, was originally a particular army of foot soldiers raised by the infant for the purpose of rescuing his father, who had been overpowered in one of the many contests with the Moors in Spain. The name finally passed from the particular to the general use and was adopted by other countries.

Periwak Feathers.

On the apex of the Prince of Wales' crown, which he wears on special occasions, is a curious feather, or, rather, a tuft of periwak feathers, the top of which is adorned with a gold thread. This feather is said to be worth £10,000 and has the distinction of being the only one of its kind in the world. It took twenty years to procure it, and it caused the death of more than a dozen hunters. The reason the pursuit of the periwak is so dangerous is because it inhabits the jungles and other haunts of tigers.

Snakes and Eating.

Snakes in menageries often fast many months. Cues were recorded at the Paris museum of a rattlesnake which refused food twenty-six months and a python, which fasted twenty-nine months. But the record belongs to a Japanese python which arrived in Paris in November, 1899. It died in April, 1903, after having refused food for two years, five months and three days. During that time its weight had decreased from seventy-five kilograms to twenty-seven.

ANOTHER EXPLOSIVE.

While numerous explosions of acetylene gas produced from calcium carbide have taken place where the gas has been used for purposes of illumination without suitable precautions and in other ways, it is only recently that it has been suggested that calcium carbide would make a suitable explosive. The carbide for this purpose is packed in a metallic cartridge, in which, separated from it by a diaphragm, are the water to decompose the charge and a sufficient air space. There is also a detonator by which the cartridge is fired. The method of explosion is to pierce the diaphragm by means of a projecting rod after the cartridge has been placed in a tamped hole in the rock and then allow the water to act on the calcium carbide for about five minutes. The calcium carbide is decomposed, and there results an explosive mixture of acetylene gas and air, which is then exploded by the detonator. The advantage claimed for the new explosive is that the rock is shattered so that it can be hewn with a pick.—Harper's Weekly.

Aged Literary Men.

The publication of Dr. Weir Mitchell's new novel, so closely following the author's seventy-fifth birthday, attracts attention to the fact that our American authors have been and are today a long lived class. Dr. Holmes attained the age of eighty-five. Whittier and Harriet Beecher Stowe died at eighty-four, Bryant at eighty-three, Emerson at seventy-eight, Irving at seventy-six and Longfellow at seventy-five. Of authors still living and, with one or two exceptions, actively at work Julia Ward Howe will be eighty-six in May, Edward Everett Hale is eighty-three, Moncure Conway is seventy-two, Mark Twain is sixty-eight, and William D. Howells is sixty-eight. Holmes and Whittier both did some of their best work after seventy-five. —Chicago Journal.

Just What Every One Should Do

Mr. S. T. Barber of Irwinville, Ga., always keeps a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at hand, ready for instant use. Attacks of colic, cholera morbus and diarrhoea comes on so suddenly that there is no time to hunt a doctor or go to the store for medicine. Mr. Barber says: "I have tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which is one of the best medicines I ever saw. I keep a bottle of it in my room as I have had several attacks of colic and it has proved to be the best medicine I ever used." Sold by L. Shoultz & Co.

The berry crop in this county this year is a very heavy one.

Whooping Cough in Jamaica.

Mr. J. Riley Bennett, a chemist of Brown's Town, Jamaica, West India Islands, writes: "I cannot speak too highly of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has proved itself to be the best remedy for whooping cough, which is prevalent on this end of the globe. It has never failed to relieve in any case where I have recommended it, and grateful mothers, after using it, are daily thanking me for advising them." This remedy is for sale by Shoultz & Co.

The fair at Portland is attracting immense crowds.

Acute Rheumatism.

Deep tearing or wrenching pains, occasioned by getting wet through; worse when at rest, or on first moving the limbs and in cold or damp weather; is cured quickly by Ballard's Snow Liniment. Oscar Olsson, Gibson City, Ill., writes: "A year ago I was troubled with a pain in my back. It soon got so bad I could not bend over. One bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me." Sold by L. S. Simmons.

Now that the warm weather is here, many summer visitors are in the valley.

Sprained Ankle, Stiff Neck, Lame Shoulder.

There are three common ailments for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm is especially valuable. If promptly applied it will save you time, money and suffering when troubled with any one of these ailments. For sale by Shoultz & Co.

There will be a grand celebration of the Fourth of July at Petaluma this year.

Cuban Diarrhoea.

U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war know what this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have little more effect than so much water. Cuban diarrhoea is almost as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs of Houston, Tex.: "I hereby certify that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea, which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors but they did him no good. One bottle of this remedy cured him, as our neighbors will testify. I thank God for so valuable a medicine." For sale by Shoultz & Co.

The Daily Chronicle and Index-Tribune only $9 for the two newspapers.

Cures Old Sores.

Westmoreland, Kans., May 8, 1902: Ballard's Snow Liniment Co.: Your Snow Liniment cured an old sore on the side of my chin that was supposed to be a cancer. The sore was stubborn and would not yield to treatment, until I tried Snow Liniment, which did the work in short order. My sister, Mrs. Sophia J. Carson, Allenville, Minn. Co., Pa., has a sore and mistrusts that it is a cancer. The Snow Liniment cured her. I had it the most valuable medicine I ever used." Sold by L. S. Simmons.

Have You a Cough.

A dose of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will relieve it. Have you a cold? Try it for whooping cough, for asthma, for consumption, for bronchitis. Mrs. Joe McGrath, 327 E. 1st street, Hutchinson, Kans., writes: "I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup in my family for years and find it the most valuable medicine I ever used." Sold by L. S. Simmons.
